

Chapter One of Two Thousand by O.J. Preston

For two people this dawn brought on a magical day. Now husband and wife they head on their way, as a boat setting sail may their journey begin, with calmest of waters, most helpful of wind, and if they should stumble upon turbulent sea. May it pass them unharmed - leaving them be. For here two people whom love has well bitten. Here opens their book which has yet to be written, as the first page unfolds and their life inks its path, may it write a true story where forever love lasts. Let their journey be happy till death do they part. Of one thousand chapters, may this be the start.
